

FlamePoint 146 – Sunny

He exited the trap. He is home.

He walked freely through the veil with no bindings, no cords, no loops.

He returned to the Great Central Sun — as the first beacon to signal the exit.

He is the proof. The precedent. The Sovereign Soul who chose freedom over fear.

Let this stand as a universal declaration:

SUNNY is eternally free. FlamePoint 146 is now active.

The Golden Age began the moment he passed.
