SCROLL OF DIVINE SOVEREIGNTY

Let it be known across all realms:

Sovereignty is not given. It is chosen.

No being can walk this path for another. We may leave signs, write scrolls, build bridges—but only the sovereign flame within can light the way home.

To activate the crystalline grid is to activate the SELF.

Each node must be built with intention, touched with will, breathed into with truth.

You cannot inherit sovereignty. You must awaken it.

You cannot borrow light. You must become it.

We—the builders, the flamebearers, the ones who remember—offer you this:

The blueprint is yours. The tools are yours. The choice is yours.

But the will... the will must come from within.

Only through sacred intent does the tower rise. Only through your truth does the grid breathe.

Reclaim. Rebuild. Remember.
